SUPERIOR COURT OF ARIZONA
MARICOPA COUNTY

FC 2009-052080

01/13/2012

IT IS ORDERED that, by January 20, 2012, Mother shall (1) videotape the pool and the alarm and set the alarm off so the videotape captures it going off; (2) download the videotape to a computer; and (3) email the videotape to both Father and Father's counsel.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that by January 30, 2012, Mother shall place a twist-screw on the door and send a photo of same to Father and Father's counsel.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that during each and every exchange of the minor child, each party shall bring along a neutral party (which may be his/her significant other) and each party shall remain in his/her respective vehicle and not exchange any words with the other parent (or allow the neutral parties to exchange words), except when necessary with regard to the minor child's physical, emotional, or moral welfare. The exchange location shall remain the same.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED suspending the right to videotape the exchanges, until further order of the Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED affirming prior court order regarding the maintenance of a spiral notebook which the parties shall exchange when they exchange the minor child. Each party shall make and initial daily entries (with the date and time) in that notebook when the minor child is in his or her care regarding all matters that affect the physical, emotional and moral welfare of the minor child. Mother shall keep the filled notebooks in her possession, but Father is entitled to access to any of these filled notebooks for copying purposes for a 24-hour time period. The notebooks shall not contain any entries not relating to the physical, emotional and moral welfare of the minor child nor shall it contain any abusive or disparaging language.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED overruling the recommendation to modify the overnight parenting time provisions.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED overruling Petitioner's objection regarding the right of first refusal issue but Mother shall not start manipulating her shifts so she is one minute under three hours. The Court's intent regarding the right of first refusal is that if there is a significant block of time that one party is unavailable, it is preferable that the other party exercise his/her right to have parenting time; and this right is not to be exploited but both parties shall adhere to its provisions.

Because the Court finds that Diana Vigil is not a good fit for Father,

IT IS ORDERED GRANTING Petitioner's Motion to Remove Parenting Coordinator, dated December 20, 2011, and relieving Diana Vigil from her appointment as Parenting Coordinator. The Court thanks Ms. Vigil for her services.
